The January 10, 2023 City of Fishers Armed Services Commission convened at 4:30pm.

A roll call was taken–

Those members who were present in person: Kyle Fischer, Mathew Rapp, Eddie Rivers, El Ahlwardt, George Stavropoulos, Javyer Burnter, Tiffanie Ditlevson, Nicola McNab, Elliott Hultgren

Members Calling In: Jim White

Members Absent: Leah McGrath

Others present: Kaylin Worthington

Consent Agenda-

Motion was made to approve agenda and previous minutes by George. Tiffanie seconded the motion. All present members approved the agenda and previous minutes.

New Business-

Elliott made a motion to retain El Ahlwardt as president and Eddie Rivers as vice president. George seconded the motion, and all present members approved the motion.

Finalized FASC Playbook:

Any corrections sent to Kaylin by end of week.

Country and Community Award Update:

Bid has been posted on the City of Fishers website and responses are due back in March.

Armed Forces Day Ceremony:

The FASC would like to ask the City to acknowledge Armed Forces Day as a ceremony. Discussion around ceremony or event will be moved to another event around that timeframe.

May 21, 2023

National Anthem Day:

Friday, March 3, 2023- FASC would like to add to the social media list and add to playbook. This action will be presented to the PR department for approval.

Armed Services Recruiters:

George presented to the commission details on meeting with recruiters. Recruiters to meet with commission next month during the meeting. March meeting add extra time for presentation to the school leadership.

Upcoming Events-

Vietnam Veterans Day, March 29, 2023:

Richard Newton III will be the speaker. Event will be held at Knowledge Services.

Commission Member Updates:

Public meetings will now start at 4pm.

Memorial Day on May 29th- still looking for speaker. AMP as location.

Service Club of Indianapolis- George will be a speaker next week.

Next Meeting: February 14, 2023 at 4:00pm

Adjournment- As there was no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 5:30 pm